Dedication

Throughout our four years at Westwood High School, you have always proved a superb teacher, but more importantly, a trusted friend. You have provided comfort and advice when our lives were troubled, and words of praise and congratulatory hugs to make our happiness complete when all was well. Your cheery hellos and sense of humor as we passed by in the hall never failed to help put our problems in proper perspective and make the day just a little bit brighter. Your kindness, wisdom, and understanding have been greatly appreciated. The Senior Class will miss you greatly in the years to come.

It is with love and gratitude that we dedicate the 1983 Green Years to you, Mr. Peter Case.

Principal's Message

To the Class of 1983

As you approach your graduation, we are all reminded once again that it is a time of great change. Many of you will move on to institutions of higher learning which will bring a change in the level and intensity of your studies. For those who enter directly into a full-time working situation, the adult system of self-support and individual responsibility will become an immediate reality. For all of you there will be a major change in your associations, your social life and your personal experiences.

Speaking for myself and the staff of Westwood High School, I wish you well and I express a sincere hope that your years here have prepared you academically and personally for whatever situation each of you may encounter. I am sure each of you feels a very special closeness to one or more members of the staff. May I suggest, respectfully, that you make your feelings known to these people, since their greatest reward is the knowledge that they have made a contribution to their students.

Once again, best wishes for the future and my thanks for the contributions which you have made to the school as individuals and as a class.

Vice-Principal's Message

We tend to remember each class for its contributions to Westwood High School. During your tenure you were recognized for accomplishments in the classroom, in athletics, on the stage, and in a variety of activities that contribute so much to the excellence that is Westwood High School.

I tend to remember the Class of 1983 for its spirit of cooperation and the personal qualities that were ever so evident throughout the entire class. You have matured and enriched your lives through lasting friendships that, in many cases, will continue for a lifetime. You have given freely of yourselves and prepared for the challenges that lie ahead. Your enthusiasm was contagious and set a fine example for the underclassmen. You are our success and the entire educational community stands proud.

Please remain a part of Westwood High by keeping in contact with your teachers and classmates.

"Age Quod Agis."

President's Message

The Class of 1983 is a remarkable group of people. In the beginning of our Junior Year, competition was the name of the game. It seemed that everyone was competing against one another for a respectable class rank. However, as we entered our Senior Year, we all came together and put all aspects of competition aside in order to face problems as a class instead of as a group of separate individuals.

Throughout our four years at Westwood High School, education has been our main objective, and many members of the faculty have helped us along the way. This year, Mr. Flaherty stepped in to fill the role of Principal, and he has helped our class immensely. Miss Dillon also deserves our sincere thanks for all the hard work she has done to make our Senior Year as memorable as possible. The contributions of Tracy, Joe, and Mary were likewise invaluable throughout the year.

I feel that the Class of 1983 has attained a level of achievement which surpasses that of many previous years. This is a very special group of people, and hopefully, we will all fulfill the goals which we have set out to accomplish.

Valedictorian's Message

In Japan, it's "sayonara"; in Portugal, it's "ate logo". In Germany, it's "auf wiedersehen", and in Italy, it's "arrivederci". In every country, in every language, there are words to express the universal thought. Now, the time has come for us to speak these words to each other: "Good-bye and best wishes, until we meet again."

We've finally survived the last of these six make-or-break years together. For some, the time has lagged dreadfully; for others, the end has come alarmingly fast. Some are restless, eager to strike out on their own; others are uncertain, intimidated by new responsibility. At this point, we set out in uniquely different directions, aimed for our respective goals, filled with the desire to accomplish and achieve. Whether we are aware of it or not, the experiences and relationships we've encountered along the way have helped us develop the integrity and innovativeness to assume firm control of our lives. We are individuals of hope and talent, amply equipped to enter the next phase of life. So, with warmest wishes, "Arrivederci, Class of 1983!" . . . Good luck and God bless!

High School Administration

Mr. Phillip Flaherty
Principal

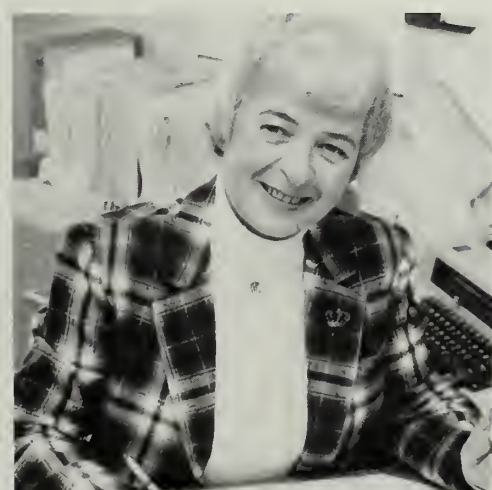

Mr. Charles Flahive
Vice-Principal

Throughout our past four years at Westwood High School, the Administration has strived to give each of us the highest quality education possible. They have also always been available to deal with all of the problems and concerns that arise at a high school.

During our stay we have seen a change in the front office from Mr. Duane Kocina to the very capable Mr. Phillip Flaherty. Together with Mr. Charles Flahive, the two have guided us through a very successful year.

Secretaries

Mrs. Marjorie Hall

Mrs. Jacqueline Angelici

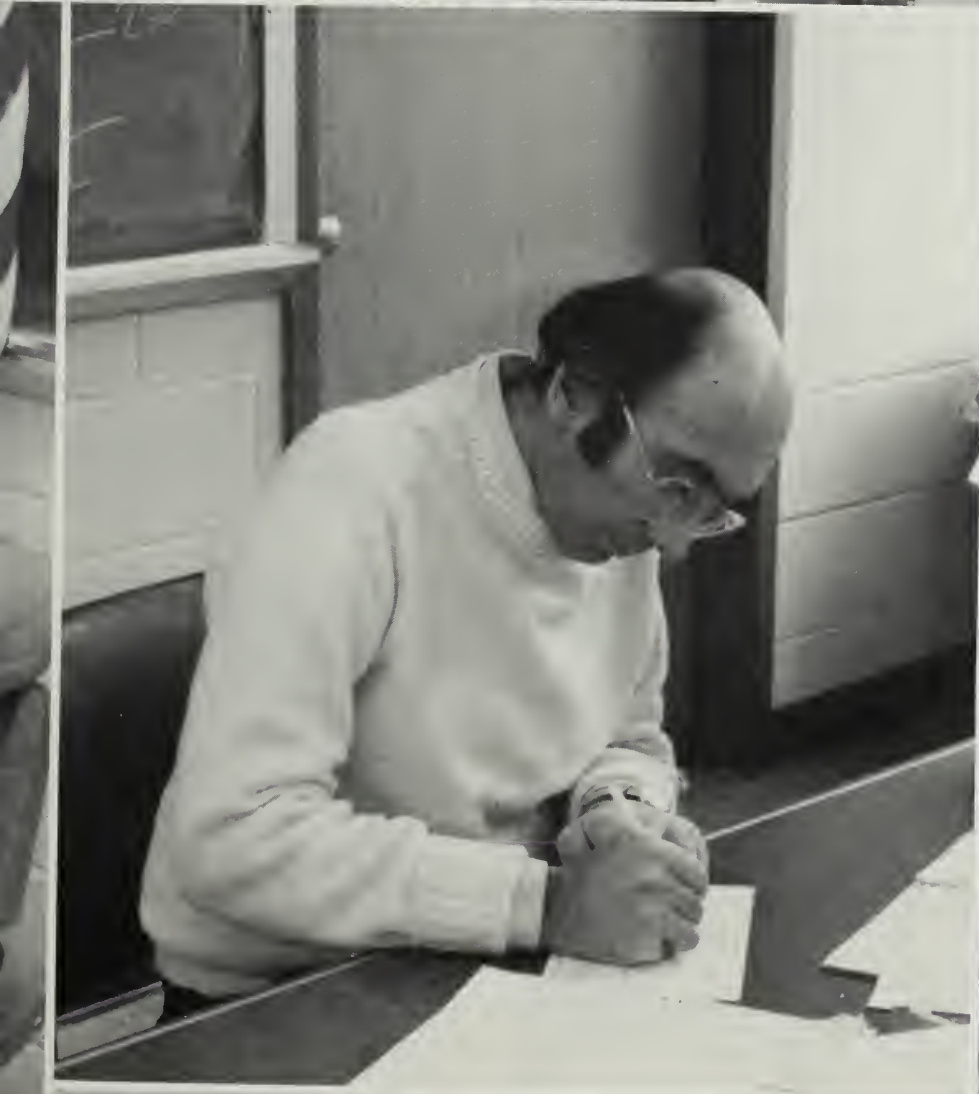

Mrs. Margery Hancox

A very diligent secretarial staff aids the administration by providing the essential services needed to keep the school running smoothly and efficiently. The patience of Mrs. Margery Hancox, Mrs. Jacqueline Angelici, and Mrs. Marjorie Hall is sincerely appreciated, as they faithfully see to seemingly insignificant details. The women have managed to see their way over the mountains of paperwork to contribute to nonacademic and theatrical events.

English

Area Coordinator: Miss Frances Burns

Mr. George Hancox

Mrs. Evelyn Malm

Mrs. Linda Hanlon

Miss H. Joan Dillon

Mrs. Mary Bishop

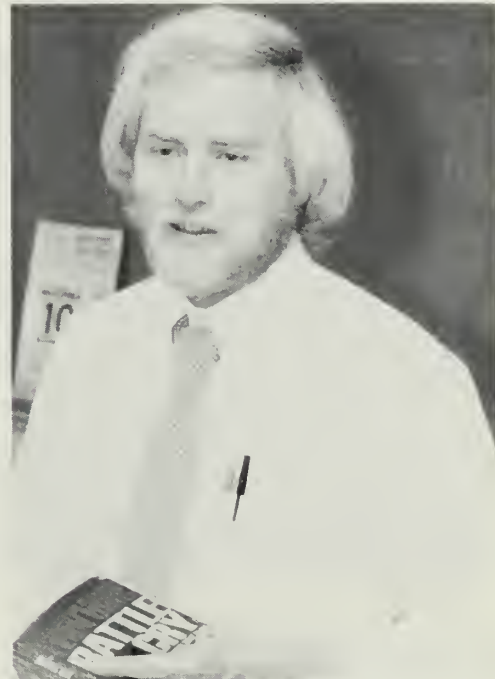

The English Department, under the direction of Miss Frances Burns, provided students with a wide variety of challenging and informative courses. From Miss Shute's renowned diaphragmatic breathing exercises in Oral English to the dreaded weekly compositions in Comp. and Grammar to Mr. Milan's colorful lectures in Ascent of Man and Art History, the English teachers have never failed to amaze and enlighten their students. All the staff members of this outstanding department have done a superb job in preparing students for the challenges we will face both in college and our future careers.

Foriegn Language

The Foreign Language Department, directed by Mrs. Elaine Doucette, has both broadened students' knowledge of other cultures and increased their fluency in the languages of French, Spanish, German, and Latin. The students studying Spanish have the opportunity to visit Spain during April vacation, and several students of German have also been able to travel abroad during the summer with the Goethe Institute of Boston. In the classroom, Mrs. Perry's "filas" and Mrs. Doucette's huge collection of French 5 tapes will not be forgotten. In general, our preparation for a lifetime of experiencing foreign cultures has been excellent.

Science

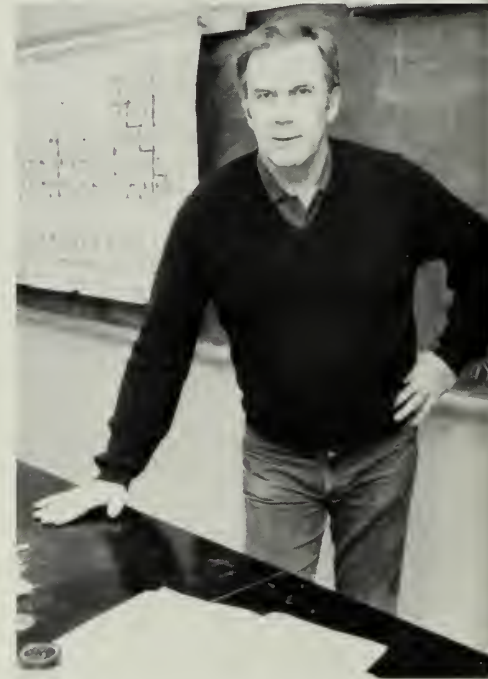

Under the direction of Mr. Pender, the science department enables the student body to take interesting courses in the areas of natural and physical science. The courses range from Introductory Physical Science to Advanced Placement Physics. Many exciting creations have been conjured up in Mr. Luther's laboratory. Thanks to the hard-working staff, a large number of students are involved in the programs.

Mr. Lawrence Vallencourt

Miss Karen Maruca

Under the direction of Mr. James Pender, the Math Department provides its students with an excellent preparation for SAT's and further college study. The courses range from first year Algebra all the way up to A.P. Calculus. The program not only provides excellent teachers, but also a very helpful Math Seminar and a fully equipped computer room.

Mr. Pender's Math Team had a very successful year competing in several meets against such rivals at Canton and Needham. The very capable math students also competed in the Math Olympiad.

Mr. Harvey Fischler

Mr. David Walsh

Mr. Richard Hargreaves

Social Studies

Under the direction of Miss Frances Burns, the Social Studies Department has been and continues to be a major success at Westwood High School. Under the leadership of its well qualified staff, the students understand man's history, the workings of his government, and his conflict with society. Although the department only requires one year of U.S. History, interested students elected other courses such as Chinese Civilization, Psychology, Sociology, Economics, and A.P. Western Civilization.

Industrial Arts

For those of us heading off to a vocational career, the Industrial Arts Department has proved a valuable asset. Under the direction of Mr. Rettman and his staff, Mr. Nelson, Miss Adams, and Mr. Mushroe, we have learned about electricity, mechanical drawing, architecture, and woodworking. An extra bit of thanks is extended to the graphic arts division, which is responsible for the printing of numerous school programs, tickets for school functions, and our literary magazine, No Parentheses.

Area Coordinator: Mr. Lawrence Rettman

Mr. Thomas Nelson

Ms. Susan Adams

Mr. Peter Mushroe

Home Economics

The growing Home Economics Department at Westwood High School offers a wide variety of appealing programs under the instruction of three quite capable women. Mrs. Joanne Arnold supervises clothing classes, and even organizes related fieldtrips. Under the guiding hand of Mrs. Annette O'Brien, students take part in an active Child Growth and Development program, particularly in the organization and running of nursery school activities. Courses relating to foods include such challenges as Ethnic Foods and Advanced Foods, both expertly taught by Mrs. Marguerite Knight.

Mrs. Annette O'Brien

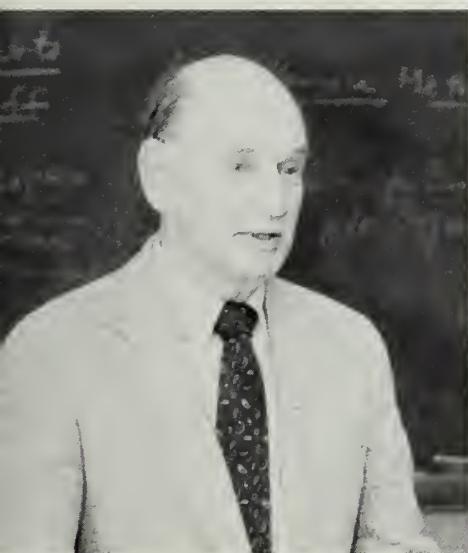

Mrs. Joanne Arnold

Business

Mrs. Natalie Carey

Mr. Albert Nolan

Mrs. Irene Dhosi

Under the direction of Mr. Rettman, the Business Department has proved invaluable in preparing aspiring Westwood High School students for the worlds of career business. With courses ranging from Business Law to Typewriting, we have learned many important business skills. Data Processing has introduced us to the role of the computer in the highly technological business community of the modern world. The careful instruction of Mrs. Carey, Mr. Nolan, Mrs. Dhosi, and Mrs. Bergen has assured an informative learning experience.

Mrs. Carolyn Bergen

Physical Education

From yoga to volleyball, tennis to swimming, and basketball to self-defense, the Physical Education Department has helped us to develop an active interest in physical fitness. At various times throughout the year, we chose from a wide range of electives; sometimes we delighted in an easy term of Miss Rice's "Jane Fonda Workout", and other times we suffered the tortures of Mr. Tuccelli's infamous "Tuce abuse". With the further encouragement of Mr. Joseph Gearon, the Athletic Director, Mr. Downes, and Miss Peters, we faired pretty well through it all, and we are well on our way to a lifetime of good health!

Nurse

Our school nurse, Mrs. Elizabeth Clement, is always available to anyone who needs her attention, whether medical or just in the form of a TLC smile. Her sunny disposition and gentle understanding are quite in keeping with her extraordinary personality. Thanks to her untiring efforts, Westwood High School is always a safe, healthy place to be.

Mrs. Elizabeth Clement

Mr. Donald MacGillivray

Guidance

Dr. William Pendell

The Guidance Department consists of a devoted staff of wonderfully capable, helpful people. Dr. W.H. Pendell, the director, Miss Carol Armstrong, Mrs. Helene Lauer, Mr. Thomas Hughes, and secretary Mrs. Phyllis Wheeler all work together to provide such services as career planning, educational counseling and personal consulting. The many beneficial activities organized and supported by the Department help students to become aware of the many opportunities available to them. With a friendly smile and an encouraging word, the Guidance staff members really urge the students to increase their personal development and pursue their individual goals. Also, thanks to the work of C.E.T. Chairperson Mrs. Susan Bornstein, opportunities are open for further individual attention.

Ms. Carol Armstrong

Mr. Thomas Hughes

Work Study

The Work Study Program was reinstituted this year under the coordination of Mrs. Joanne Arnold. Under her direction, students have the opportunity to be employed by local businesses where they learn first-hand the basics of retailing, marketing, and salesmanship. Other preparatory exercises include putting together a resume and perfecting interview skills.

Mrs. Phyllis Wheeler

Mrs. Joanne Arnold

Mrs. Lorraine Brinton

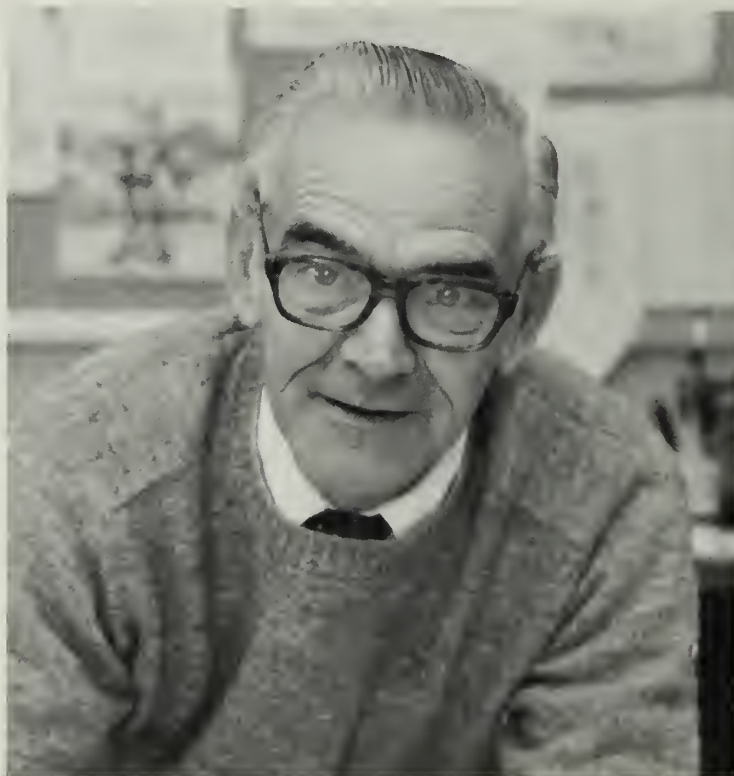

Mrs. Susan Bornstein

Art

The Art Department, under the direction of Mrs. Elaine Doucette, offers a wide variety of courses expertly taught by Mrs. Judith DesPres and Mr. Thomas DelSignore. Offerings range from Ceramics to Advanced Placement Portfolio II. Thanks to the talents of its staff, this fine department is able to provide any interested students with an excellent background in the visual arts.

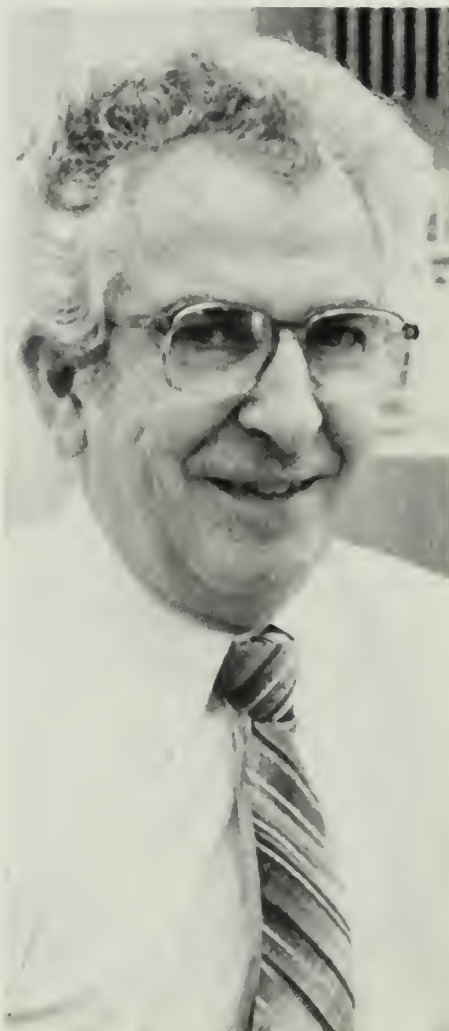

Mrs. Judith DesPres

Mr. Thomas DelSignore

Music

The Music Department had another busy and successful year as each of the various ensembles contributed its own special talent at a number of events. The Chorus filled the auditorium with eloquent music at every concert. The Glee Club performed above and beyond the call of duty on several occasions throughout the year. The strong leadership of Mr. John Markarian contributed immensely to the success and growth of the Music Department. Band Director Mr. Pitts was also a major factor influencing the development of the music program at our school.

Special Education

In the Special Education Department exceptional children learn the fundamentals of reading, writing and arithmetic, as well as cooking and sewing. Although special classes are usually held in a newly-designated room in the social studies wing, some students are able to attend regular classes. The devoted staff has done a beautiful job of helping the students to develop their special talents.

Self-Contained

The Self-Contained Program, under the direction of Miss Ann Vozella and Mr. Donald MacGillivray, has been set up for students whose personal and educational needs have not been met by the regular school program. The program offers a wonderful opportunity for more individualized student-teacher interaction in a school setting.

Media Center

Mr. Eugene Swezey, director

Mrs. Virginia McCoubrey, librarian

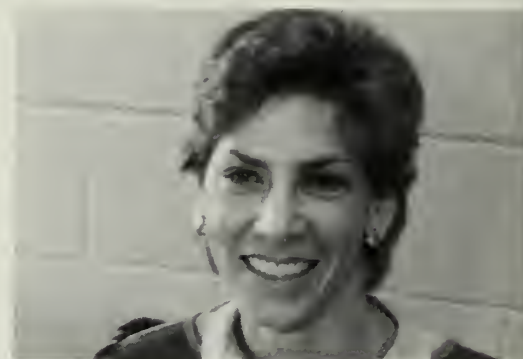

Mrs. Nanette Eckert

What's high school without a library? Westwood has one of the finest. Under the care of Mr. Eugene Swezey and librarian Mrs. Virginia McCoubrey, the Media Center provides a vast number of learning resources for students. A wide collection of books, magazines, and newspapers are readily available, as are a number of helpful services and audio-visual instruction. With the added efforts of newcomer Mrs. Eckert, the library has become a surprisingly quiet place to study. But be warned: you may hear "Four to a table!"

Learning Center

The Learning Center has proven to be a successful, essential unit at Westwood High School. The staff helps students develop skills needed for learning; students are provided with an opportunity to improve their learning progress under faculty supervision. One of the major aims of the Center is to mainstream those students with learning disabilities or with needs for remedial assistance.

Best Wishes

The time has come to say good-bye to our Superintendent Dr. John F. Tobin. But how can we say good-bye to someone who has dedicated so many years to educating young people? Starting as an English teacher, he worked his way to principal and, eventually, superintendent. For the past seventeen years, Dr. Tobin has seen many dynamic changes in the Westwood schools and has been responsible for a great deal of them. Times are not always easy for someone in this position, especially with Proposition 2½, declining enrollments, budget cuts, etc., but Dr. Tobin can walk away proud, with head raised high, for a job so well done. You will be greatly missed, Dr. Tobin, by the entire school community and it is your inspiration that will show us the way to a brighter future in education.

After having dedicated twenty-two years to the students of Westwood, Mrs. Bergen has decided to retire. As a valued member of the Business Department, she has always put the students' needs as top priority. Her everlasting smile, concern, talent and energy will be greatly missed. We thank you, Mrs. Bergen, for being such a great teacher and dear friend.

Senior Class Advisers

The Class of 1983 would like to thank all the senior class advisers for the support and guidance they have given us throughout the year. These faculty members have spent countless hours both organizing and participating in all the activities that have made our senior year so enjoyable. Their efforts have been greatly appreciated.

Senior Class Poem

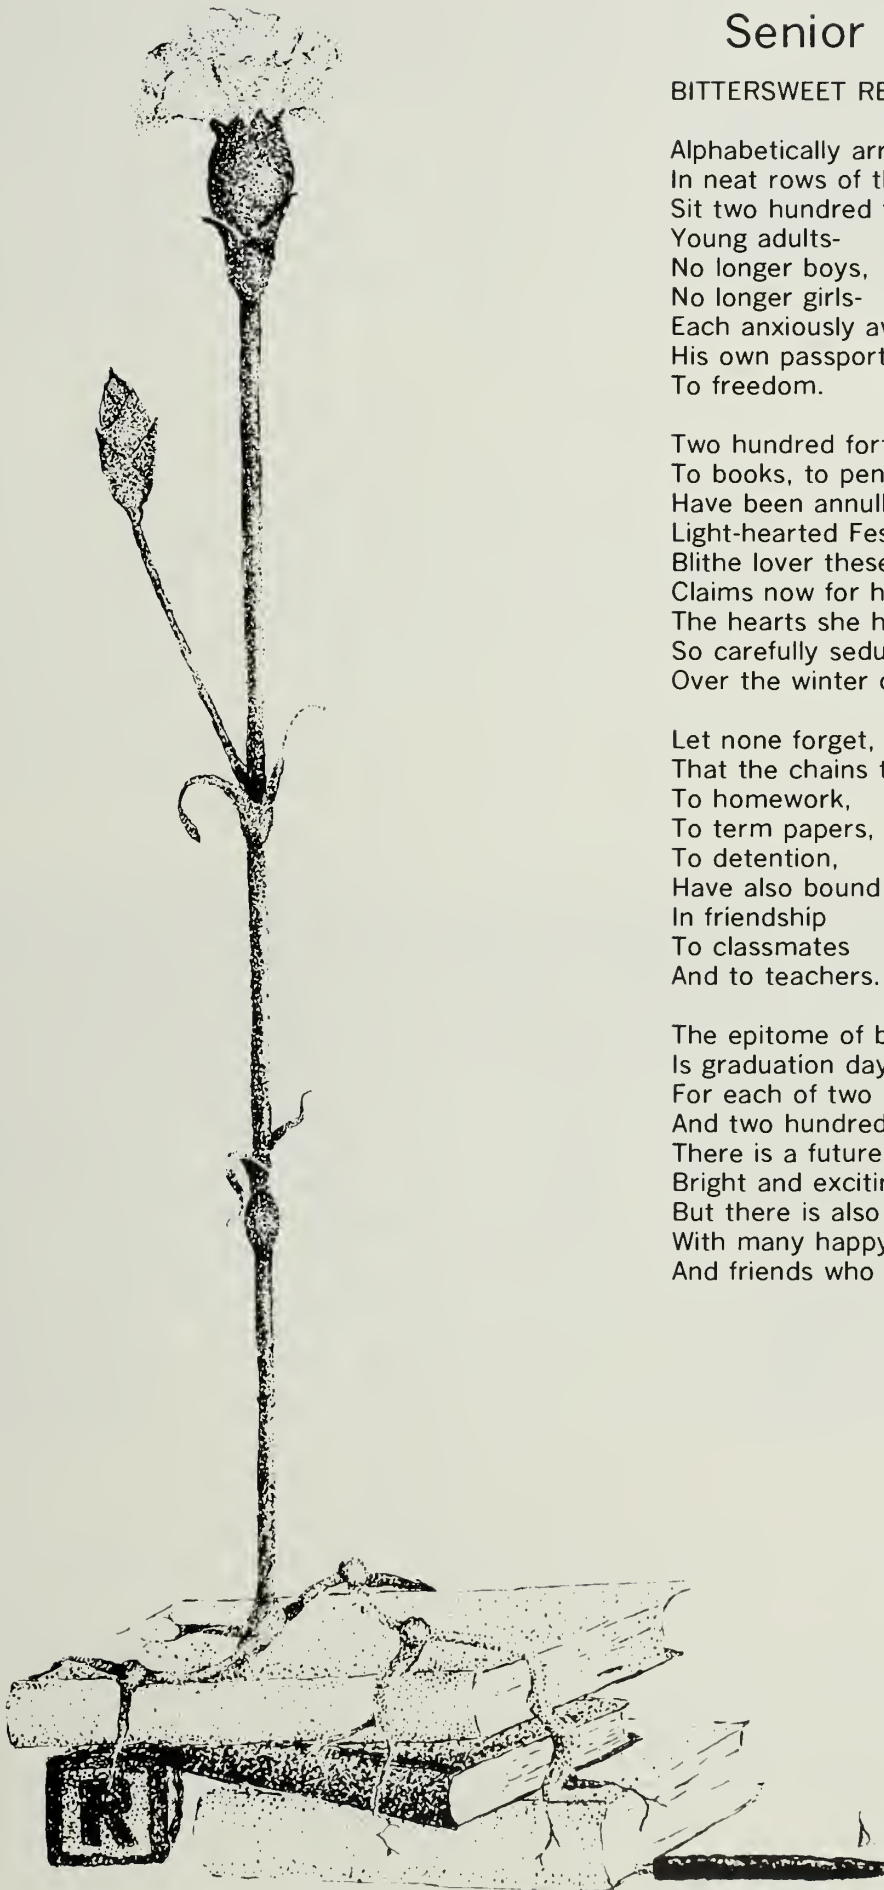

BITTERSWEET REFLECTIONS

Alphabetically arranged
In neat rows of thirteen
Sit two hundred forty-two
Young adults-
No longer boys,
No longer girls-
Each anxiously awaiting
His own passport
To freedom.

Two hundred forty-two uneasy marriages
To books, to pencils, to calculators,
Have been annulled;
Light-hearted Festivity,
Blithe lover these ten long months,
Claims now for her own
The hearts she has
So carefully seduced
Over the winter of arduous toil.

Let none forget, however,
That the chains that have bound them
To homework,
To term papers,
To detention,
Have also bound them
In friendship
To classmates
And to teachers.

The epitome of bittersweet
Is graduation day;
For each of two hundred forty-two caps
And two hundred forty-two gowns
There is a future,
Bright and exciting;
But there is also a past,
With many happy memories
And friends who will be missed.

FRESHMAN YEAR

We began our long awaited high school experience in the fall of 1979 and accepted our lowly Freshman position. We elected, for the first time, class officers: President, Paul Toland; Vice president, Diane Walsh; Secretary, Trese LaCamera; and Treasurer, Charles Foehl.

Our first Freshman activity was the AFS magazine drive (the worst of all Freshman beatings); however, we participated enthusiastically. Homecoming week rolled around and our many Freshman athletes were forced to show their pride by wearing their uniforms to school. Clash Day and Hat Day were great; unfortunately, our effort on Hall Decorating Day was the butt of many upperclassmen jokes. Debbie McCoy represented our class in the homecoming court.

Our first experience with high school social life was at the Cloverland woods parties. In school, however, many Freshman girls were involved in "Senior Worship" largely due to the plentiful supply of gorgeous senior boys that year.

Filled with spunk, we cheered the girls' basketball team and girls' track team through undefeated seasons, and the hockey team went to the Garden. The Freshman representative to the HWS hockey team was Dexter Vanzile. We honored Dexter's services with a standing ovation at the Hockey pep rally.

The Spring Musical that year was "George M", and more Freshman were in the cast than ever before. With the spring also came the Freshman-Sophomore Banquet. The class trip to Nantasket was cancelled due to rain that never fell. With the close of our Freshman year we looked forward to the more respectable status of sophomore.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

With confidence, we began our sophomore year under the leadership of President, Paul Toland; Vice President, Diane Walsh; Secretary, Trese LaCamera; and Treasurer, Joy Kalfopolous.

This was the year during which we experienced Biology with Mrs. Saltmarsh and Mr. Sarris, and Oral English with Miss Shute. It was here that we learned to breathe—diaphramatically.

As sophomores, we portrayed our spirit by participating on Hat Day, Clash Day, Backwards Day, and Green Pride Day. Diane Walsh was our representative to the court this year.

As for sports, Westwood was well-represented. Both the boys and girls soccer teams made it to the tournament, and the football team won their Thanksgiving game against Holliston. The hockey team had a great season making it to the Garden for the semi-finals. The girls and boys basketball teams also competed in their tournaments. The winter and spring track teams did well. Finally, the girls' and boys' tennis teams both finished first in their leagues.

We ended our year with a banquet-dance featuring Chinese Food and Fabulous Fred. We had made it through these two years of being called lowly underclassmen, and were looking forward to becoming upperclassmen in September.

JUNIOR YEAR

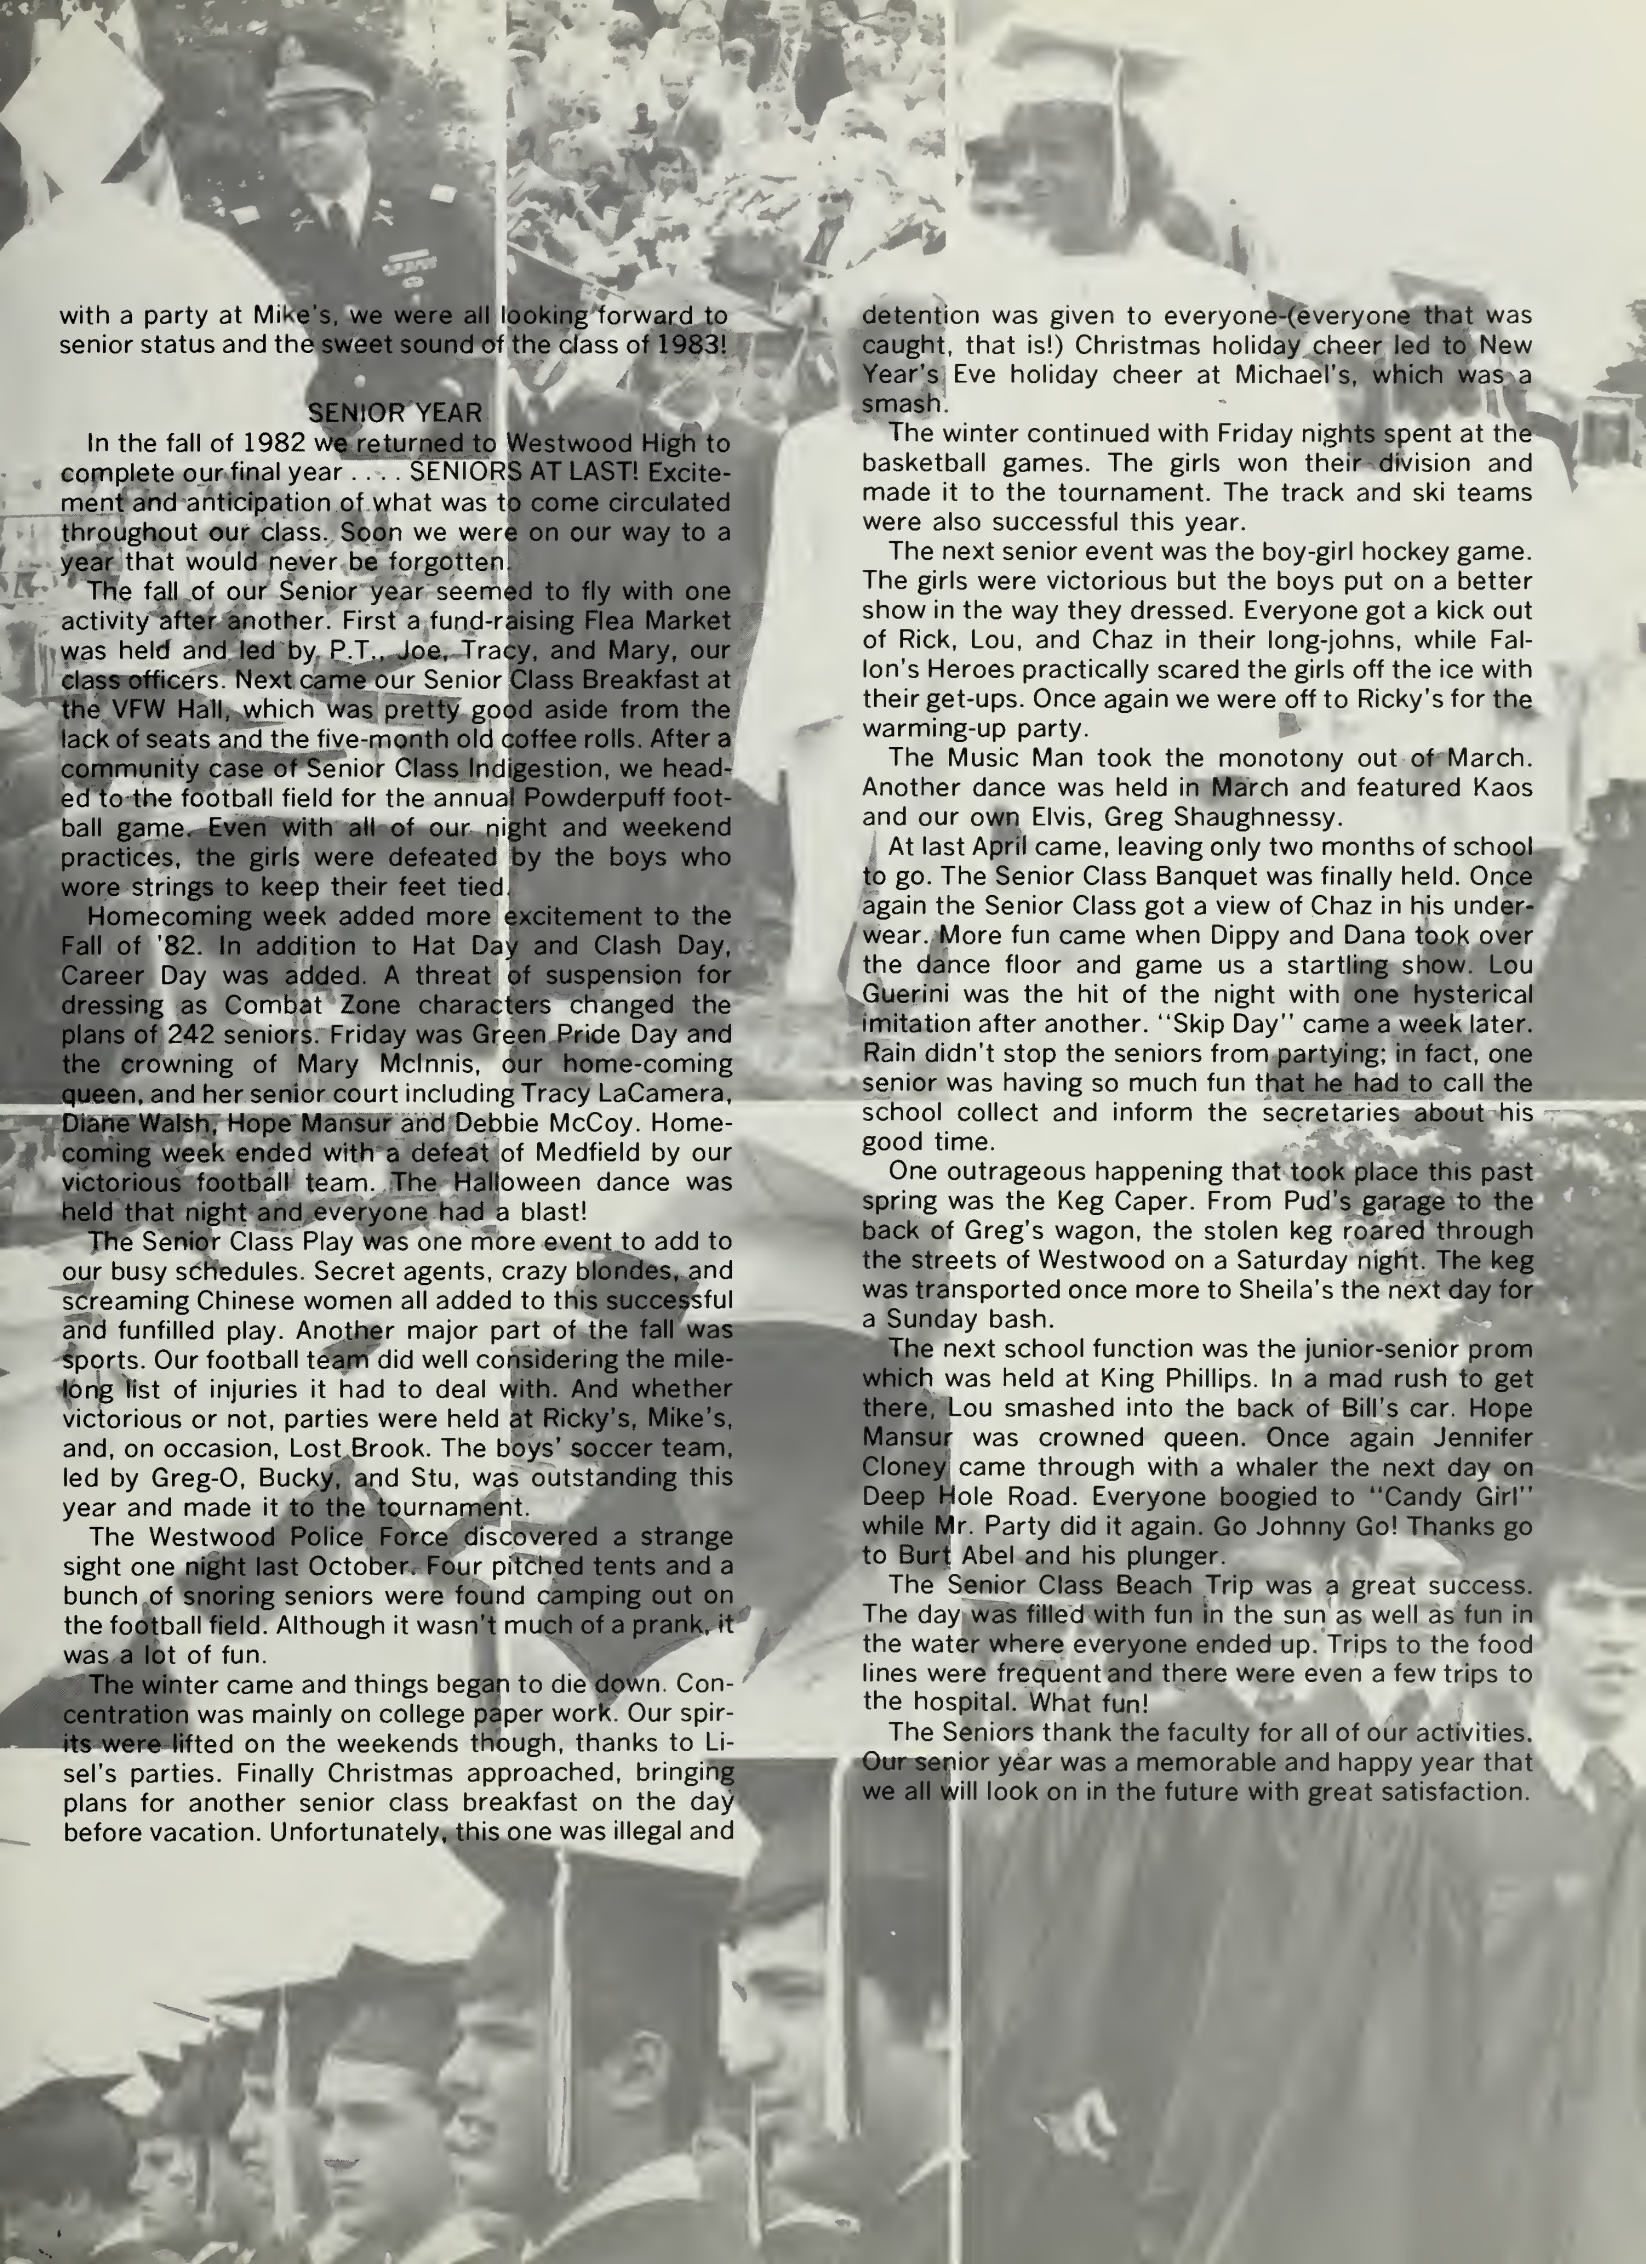

September 1981, we were finally upperclassmen. Junior year was forecast to be the toughest year ever. Yet, we were determined to make the best of it. Of course, into every year a little rain must fall or should I say, a lot of rain. The first major downpour was U.S. History. The rumors of Miss Congdon's strictness scared many of us into taking A.P. History. Then again, Mr. Avakian made us sit and suffer. The sweetest sound you could hear during history was the sound of the fire drill—again, again, again . . . Junior year also meant the beginning of PSAT's, SAT's, and Achievements. Surprisingly enough, we did very well as a class.

Under the leadership of President Trese LaCamera, Vice-President Joe Gallagher, Secretary Diane Walsh, and Treasurer Charles Foehl, something was bound to go wrong. Much to our surprise the year ran smoothly. Charles charmed class dues out of most of his female classmates while the boys just laughed at him.

The year in sports brought out some latent talent. In football Sean tackled his goal of 1,000 yards. Meanwhile, Quarterback Kevin, receivers Dave and Greg, and Linebacker Jim led the Wolverines to a 7-3 record and a victory over superbowl champs, Holliston. The boys and girls soccer, girls basketball, boys baseball, and the track teams were in tournament play.

Homecoming week brought us together as a class. We nominated well-deserving Trese LaCamera to represent us in the homecoming court. We were lucky she could make it though. She and the majority of the school was out with the infamous mumps! We all joined in on Hat Day, Toga Day, Green Pride Day and saw some interesting jammies on Pajama Day. And how could we forget Charles' costume at the homecoming dance?

One of the major accomplishments of the junior class was the prom at the King Phillip Ballroom with the theme "Wishing on a Star". We were proud to have Anne Heffron, Terri O'Toole, Jen Collins, and Sandy Bardzilowski represent us in the court. Ending the year with a party at Mike's, we were all looking forward to senior status and the sweet sound of the class of 1983!

SENIOR YEAR

In the fall of 1982 we returned to Westwood High to complete our final year . . . SENIORS AT LAST! Excitement and anticipation of what was to come circulated throughout our class. Soon we were on our way to a year that would never be forgotten.

The fall of our Senior year seemed to fly with one activity after another. First a fund-raising Flea Market was held and led by P.T., Joe, Tracy, and Mary, our class officers. Next came our Senior Class Breakfast at the VFW Hall, which was pretty good aside from the lack of seats and the five-month old coffee rolls. After a community case of Senior Class Indigestion, we headed to the football field for the annual Powderpuff football game. Even with all of our night and weekend practices, the girls were defeated by the boys who wore strings to keep their feet tied.

Homecoming week added more excitement to the Fall of '82. In addition to Hat Day and Clash Day, Career Day was added. A threat of suspension for dressing as Combat Zone characters changed the plans of 242 seniors. Friday was Green Pride Day and the crowning of Mary McInnis, our home-coming queen, and her senior court including Tracy LaCamera, Diane Walsh, Hope Mansur and Debbie McCoy. Homecoming week ended with a defeat of Medfield by our victorious football team. The Halloween dance was held that night and everyone had a blast!

The Senior Class Play was one more event to add to our busy schedules. Secret agents, crazy blondes, and screaming Chinese women all added to this successful and fulfilled play. Another major part of the fall was sports. Our football team did well considering the mile-long list of injuries it had to deal with. And whether victorious or not, parties were held at Ricky's, Mike's, and, on occasion, Lost Brook. The boys' soccer team, led by Greg-O, Bucky, and Stu, was outstanding this year and made it to the tournament.

The Westwood Police Force discovered a strange sight one night last October. Four pitched tents and a bunch of snoring seniors were found camping out on the football field. Although it wasn't much of a prank, it was a lot of fun.

The winter came and things began to die down. Concentration was mainly on college paper work. Our spirits were lifted on the weekends though, thanks to Lissel's parties. Finally Christmas approached, bringing plans for another senior class breakfast on the day before vacation. Unfortunately, this one was illegal and detention was given to everyone (everyone that was caught, that is!) Christmas holiday cheer led to New Year's Eve holiday cheer at Michael's, which was a smash.

The winter continued with Friday nights spent at the basketball games. The girls won their division and made it to the tournament. The track and ski teams were also successful this year.

The next senior event was the boy-girl hockey game. The girls were victorious but the boys put on a better show in the way they dressed. Everyone got a kick out of Rick, Lou, and Chaz in their long-johns, while Fallon's Heroes practically scared the girls off the ice with their get-ups. Once again we were off to Ricky's for the warming-up party.

The Music Man took the monotony out of March. Another dance was held in March and featured Kaos and our own Elvis, Greg Shaughnessy.

At last April came, leaving only two months of school to go. The Senior Class Banquet was finally held. Once again the Senior Class got a view of Chaz in his underwear. More fun came when Dippy and Dana took over the dance floor and gave us a startling show. Lou Guerini was the hit of the night with one hysterical imitation after another. "Skip Day" came a week later. Rain didn't stop the seniors from partying; in fact, one senior was having so much fun that he had to call the school collect and inform the secretaries about his good time.

One outrageous happening that took place this past spring was the Keg Caper. From Pud's garage to the back of Greg's wagon, the stolen keg roared through the streets of Westwood on a Saturday night. The keg was transported once more to Sheila's the next day for a Sunday bash.

The next school function was the junior-senior prom which was held at King Phillips. In a mad rush to get there, Lou smashed into the back of Bill's car. Hope Mansur was crowned queen. Once again Jennifer Cloney came through with a whaler the next day on Deep Hole Road. Everyone boogied to "Candy Girl" while Mr. Party did it again. Go Johnny Go! Thanks go to Burt Abel and his plunger.

The Senior Class Beach Trip was a great success. The day was filled with fun in the sun as well as fun in the water where everyone ended up. Trips to the food lines were frequent and there were even a few trips to the hospital. What fun!

The Seniors thank the faculty for all of our activities. Our senior year was a memorable and happy year that we all will look on in the future with great satisfaction.

The Wolverine Football Team finished in second place in the Tri-Valley League with a record of 5-3-1. Realizing that the Tri-Valley is the most competitive league in the state, the team had great success.

Led by Co-captains Sean Fitzpatrick and John McNamara, the squad showed their determination in many close and hard-hitting games.

Named to the Daily Transcript All-Star Team were Jim Brawley (also League All-Star), Sean Fitzpatrick (2,000 yds. career rushing), Kevin McDonald (6 interceptions), and Greg Shaughnessy.

The team and their fans would like to thank the coaching staff, led by Jack Diatelevi, for teaching them the ideals of sportsmanship and determination.

The 1982 Girls' Volleyball Team had a successful season coming in third place in the Tri-Valley League. Highlights of the season included beating undefeated Holliston in the last game of the season. Tri-Valley League All-Star standings were awarded to Co-captains Debbie McCoy and Denise West. Lynne Riordan was also a Tri-Valley All-Star. Next year should prove to be a successful year, with thirteen returning players. Good luck, girls!

This year's Westwood Boys' Cross-Country Team, under the leadership of Coach Hargreaves and Captains Brian Roach and Paul Duray, finished the year at a consistent 4-3 record. While the League standing of the team was good, Westwood "got revenge" at the League Meet, defeating every team but Holliston. Westwood then went on to the State Meet (Mud Bowl) where the team placed well amongst stiff competition. Congratulations to selected All-Star Chris Doherty. Best of luck and good hunting to next year's team!

The Girls' Cross-Country Team finished the season with a 3-1 League record. The seven of us want to thank Mr. Fischler for putting up with our, "But we haven't finished stretching!", and "We REALLY don't want to run!". Congratulations to Captain Cindy Murphy and Elise Papetti for being selected as Tri-Valley League All-Stars. Good job in the State Meet (our sneakers are still muddy), especially Elise, who finished 18th.

The 1982 Girls' Swim Team had a super season. It was a year of a new coach, winning freshmen, and a winning season. The girls had a record of 7 wins and 4 losses. The girls ended up twelfth in the state out of sixty teams. Mary Anne Glynn ended up with tenth in the state in swimming. Jennifer Cloney won first place in the State Meet for diving, and Beth Ferraro took fifth. The new coach Margo Mahoney added the talent of a coach we needed. Thanks for a super season. With only four Seniors leaving, there are many more winning seasons ahead for the girls. Good luck in the future.

The Westwood squad consisted of only eleven members this year, the captains being Warren Mayhew and Rick Leveckis. Rick had perhaps the best season of his career, breaking the school's 50-yard freestyle record with a time of 23.28 seconds. Rick also placed in the Sectionals, State, and New England meets, and was chosen as a TVL All-Star. Tom Bennett had an outstanding season, qualifying for the Sectional and State meets and being named a TVL All-Star. Matt Skelly had an awesome season, qualifying for the Sectional and State meets. Greg Topjian (diving) and Mike Mason (freestyle and backstroke) also had a super year. This year, the "Westwood Blow-Chows" had fun while working very hard, so hard that all of the swimmers received varsity letters.

The Girls' Team started off with a bang, winning the League Relays, finishing 5-0-1 (that one tie with Dover), and then winning the Conference Meet. Elise continued her winning streak and was chosen a Tri-Valley All-Star, as were Co-captains Mary McInnis and Cindy Murphy, Anne Heffron, Lisa Bothwick, Beth Delaplace, Mary Ward, and Pam White.

Blue Lou, Slick Rick, Roachie, Gino, Doorsy, Gus and Trus all assisted in their own way to the Boys' indoor track record of 5-2. Co-captains Sean Fitzpatrick and Russell Murray led the team throughout the season. Sean Fitzpatrick, Peter Door, Eugene Carlson, and Jim Howley were chosen as All-Stars. P.S. Where's Trussel???

This year was another championship season for the girls Varsity Basketball team. Led by co-captains Trese LaCamera and Erin Sugrue, the girls swept through the Tri-Valley League with a record of 16-0, while setting a new state record of 160 consecutive league wins. First year coach Sue Peters skillfully directed the team to victory in the South Sectional Championships. Super Star Laura Boucher was named a Globe All-Star player and a Tri-Valley League Most Valuable Player, while team mates Jeanne Conley, Denise West and Erin Sugrue were also T. V. L. All-Stars.

The Wolverines jumped out to a record of 7-1 in the first half of the season, but their tournament chances folded with a final record of 12-8. The team was led by captains Greg Ormsby, John Henderson and Paul Cummings and coached by Peter Geary and Gary Rook. Congratulations goes to Transcript All-Stars Bill McGillis and Steve McCoy who were most of Westwood's offensive attack.

Led by Captains Robert Swartz, Peter Fallon, and Ed Brown and under the guidance of Coach Dick Bradley, the 1982-83 Varsity Hockey Team ended the season with an 11-4-1 record and placed second in the Tri-Valley League behind Dover-Sherborn.

The team broke Dover's streak of consecutive games without a loss when they beat them 6-4 finishing off the best week of the season in which they also beat Medfield. Robert Swartz, Peter Fallon, Ed Brown, Chris DeCimone, Kevin Welby, Steve Nolte, and Dave Pecararo were named to the T.V.L. All-Star Team. The Wolverines also qualified for the Eastern Mass. Tournament, but lost in the first round to Northeast Regional.

The team would like to thank coaches Bradley and Hogan for their hard work. Also the captains and seniors Dana Malloy, Paul Duray, Joe McCusker, and Alan Pecararo wish the team good luck next year.

Student Council

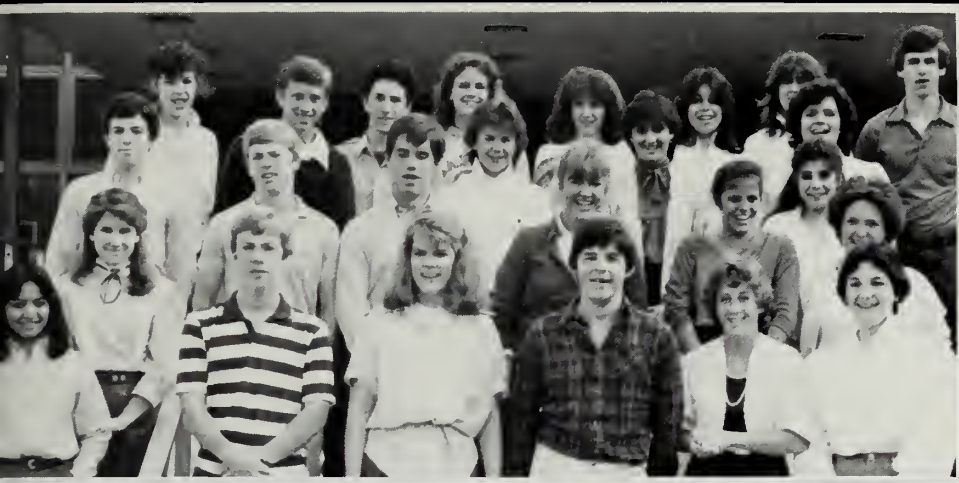

The Student Council had a very productive year. Its greatest success was the ever-popular Homecoming week, during which the four classes competed in competitions of Wolverine spirit and pride. On Valentines Day, countless carnations were sold and delivered to many pleased (and often surprised) students. The Bloodmobile, worthwhile service, was another of the Student Council's highly successful projects.

National Honor Society

Members of the National Honor Society are selected for exemplifying qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. This year, National Honor Society members volunteered within the school as tutors and office aides. The group sponsored several dinners, held a reunion tea, and gathered food for needy families on Thanksgiving. In addition, members sang Christmas carols at Mass General Hospital (unfortunately, some members never quite made it all the way to the hospital . . .). The National Honor Society members express their sincere gratitude to their advisor, Miss Dillon, for her constant support and dedication to the organization. The members of the National Honor Society would like to thank the officers for their time and effort.

National Merit

Westwood High School was honored this year to have five students named as National Merit Finalists and fifteen students named as commended students. This is the greatest number of students honored by the National Merit Program in Westwood's history. Students qualify for these awards by scoring extremely well on the PSAT exam given in junior year.

Under the unfailing guidance of Mrs. Virginia McCoubrey, the AFS Club has had a fun-filled year. The officers were Julie Gearty, Richard Romaine, and Wendy Wonson. They did a wonderful job coordinating a short term exchange with Ramsy, New Jersey, and the international dinner. Valerie Dubois, AFS exchange student for the year from Belgium, was one of the club's most popular members. Valerie stayed with the Hart family. Itzel Goti, the club's second exchange student, was from Panama. Itzel stayed with the Katler family. The club also welcomed Christophe Vanderlinden, AFS exchange student from Belgium, visiting from Longwood, Florida for two weeks. This year's AFS summer abroad candidates are Nancy Crawford, Renee Kruger, and Susan Pallieko.

No Parentheses

Under the valuable guidance of faculty advisor Mr. Michael Milan, the staff of "No Parentheses", comprised of students from each of the four classes, met each week to review and edit carefully and objectively all of the outstanding submitted material. After several months of time-consuming, dedicated work, the staff published a magazine which displayed the many talents of the students at Westwood High School. Many thanks to all those who helped make this year's issue of "No Parentheses" such a success.

Associate Editors Charles Foehl and Jennifer Spinale, Business Editor Rick D'Angelo.

Under the supervision of advisor William Ducheneau, the yearbook staff tackled its immense project with much enthusiasm. The dedication and hard work of Co-Editors Donna Prevett and Jennifer Collins were wonderful incentives, and many seniors took the opportunity to become involved in the production of the book. Associate Editors Charles Foehl and Jennifer Spinale, and Business Editor Ricky D'Angelo contributed time, energy, and interesting jokes. Finally, without the untiring efforts of Debbie Ganem, Beth Allman, Anne Lynch, and Steven Carrabis, those awful deadlines would never have been met!

Our major fund raiser, the Spaghetti Dinner, helped to supplement yearbook funds as we attracted hundreds of hungry mouths. The photograph sale at the beginning of the year also increased the budget.

Through the creation of this book, we have tried to capture and record the memorable events of the 1982-83 school year. We hope these pages bring you much happiness in the future, as you look back and reflect on your "Green Years" at Westwood High School.

The Music Man

This year's musical, The Music Man, was a tremendous success, as director Stephanie Shute worked with the enthusiastic cast of over 70 members. Three months of intense rehearsals certainly paid off, as we performed for full auditoriums and standing ovations on Friday and Saturday nights. The action begins in River City, Iowa, when the swindling travelling salesman Harold Hill (Joe Murray) tries to trick the townspeople into buying bands . . . boys' bands. The bumbling Mayor Shinn (Sean Fitzpatrick) sends the barbershop-singing school board to "get Hill's credentials or get him in jail"; so, Hill is forced to seek the aid of the town's "stuck-up music teacher" and librarian, Marian Paroo (Jennifer Spinale). No thanks to the "Think System", the two rendez-vous at the foothridge and admit to unexpectedly falling in love. Marian saves the "spellbinding cymbal salesman", the two gets its boys' band (as sure as God made little green apples), and Harold Hill ties the knot no sailor ever knew.

And rumor has it that the Beave timed a shocking 20 seconds on closing night . . .

Student Announcers

Sean Fitzpatrick and Ricky D'Angelo

This year's student announcers, Rick D'Angelo and Sean Fitzpatrick, did an outstanding job keeping the student body informed and entertained during 1982-83. The time and energy which they devoted to the task is much appreciated, and they certainly deserve the thanks of everyone at Westwood High. From all of us who have been reminded of everything from activity meetings to class dues deadlines, thank you, Sean and Rick!

Student representatives spend a week at local colleges studying state and town government. Participants are organized into towns, countries, and political parties. Mock elections are then conducted to set up complete executive and legislative working bodies. Students gain a greater understanding of the mechanics of government by actually carrying out its daily functions.

Chorus

The WHS chorus had a very exciting year. Their first concert was at Christmas time, including, of course, the Hallelujah chorus. They later travelled to Nashua, New Hampshire for an exchange concert. Both choruses became real crowd-pleasers when they sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" together. The officers are: student director, Michelle Macari; secretary, Margi Monroe; librarians, Jennifer Traylor and Maryann Perry.

The chorus would like to thank Mr. John Markarian for all his time and talents which he shared with them.

Glee Club

The Westwood High School Glee Club, although the smallest ever, enjoyed a very successful season this year. At Christmas time they performed their annual concert at the State House. The group made appearances at the Spring Concert and later at the Pops Concert. The officers of the Glee Club are: secretary, Paula Brady, and librarian, Julie Cummings. Thanks go to Mr. John Markarian for his many hours of dedicated service.

Jazz Choir

A new group was introduced to Westwood High School's music department this year. Consisting of Julie McGuinness, Cara Wentworth, Joanne Lynch, Margie Munroe, Lynne Thornton, Liz Holderreid, and Jennifer Traylor, the Jazz Choir is taking the music profession by storm. This small but very talented group sings and dances to such swinging tunes as "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy", "Why Do Fools Fall In Love?", and "String of Pearls". The group is under the musical direction of Mr. John Markarian, and the choreography is assisted by Miss Stephanie Shute. The Jazz Choir meets every morning before school to work on their entertaining program of song and dance. They perform at various concerts and dinners, delighting audiences everywhere.

Marching Band

The Wolverine Marching Band had a most successful and rewarding year. Under the direction of Director Paul Pitts and Drill Instructor Paul Byrne, the band won a number of trophies ranging from best music to top drum line. The Marching Band placed first in the State Finals at Malden and second in the New England finals.

The band would like to congratulate the officers for the time and effort and dedication shown by each one. The officers are; President Paul Toland, Vice-President Shelly Macari, Treasurer Marty McGee and Secretary Liz Page. A special thanks goes to Drum Major Joe Murray and Color Guard captains Ginny Lane and Debbie Gerlach for their hard work and dedication.

Orchestra

What a year! The word to describe this WHS Orchestra season is diverse. Our repertoire spanned from classical to popular music, and our performances ranged from intimate classical concerts to the lively, grand-scale Pops Concert. Highlighting the year was our trip to the Heritage Music Festival in Newport, Rhode Island. Thanks to all our faithful officers for their service. A special thanks goes to our dedicated and ever-patient conductor, Mr. John Markarian.

Concert Band

The Concert Band had another excellent year, performing in several concerts throughout the winter and spring seasons. Under the baton of Director John Markarian, the band delighted audiences everywhere with its thrilling performances of classical, jazz and popular works. The members of the band would especially like to thank Mr. Markarian for the patience and guidance he has shown us throughout the year.

Double Quartet

John Markarian, P. Baggeroer, J. Murray, L. Robinson, K. Cariani, J. Spinale, S. Fitzpatrick, L. Kirby, L. Guerini, M. Macari

"Learn those notes, basses!" . . . "The burning of April" . . . "Girls, do you want to talk or sing?" . . . "Do Jenn and Pam have a Physics lab, today?" . . . "Where's Laurie?"

The 1982-83 Double Quartet, under the direction of Mr. Markarian once again went out on the road during Christmas time and in the Spring, and brought music to appreciative audiences at local nursing homes, hospitals, and clubs. They also performed at the Seasonal and Pops concerts. In April and May, the group participated in an exchange concert to Nashua, N.H. and competed at the Heritage Music Festival in Newport. Selections included "Truly", "Were You There", and "As Time Goes By." Members of the group were sopranos Laurie Kirby and Lisa Robinson, altos Shelly Macari and Jennifer Spinale, tenors Lou Guerini and Joe Murray, basses Keith Cariani and Sean Fitzpatrick and accompanist Pam Baggeroer. A thank you is extended to Mr. Markarian for all his hard work and dedication.

Dance Band

Back Row (left to right): B. Bent, K. Cariani, B. Palleiko, M. McGee, J. Murray, P. Toland, P. Giambanco, S. Sullivan, L. Cappucino, L. Kirby. Front Row: B. Aho, J. Spinale, P. Baggeroer, L. Thornton, C. Ford, K. Fitzpatrick

"It's 9:00 . . . "Be back in 5 minutes, not 10" . . . "Pass it along!" . . . "Wayne, wake up". This year, the Dance Band enjoyed another fine season, playing at many concerts, and the Senior Class Banquet.

This spring the Dance Band also took a three-day concert tour to Vermont, which was definitely an experience to remember. The Dance Band would like to thank the new Director, Mr. Craig Madge, who stepped in this year and turned out another high quality performing group, and also kept alive a true Westwood tradition.

School Newspaper

One of the new additions to Westwood High School's already long list of extracurricular activities this year is the school newspaper. Interest in the paper was even more enthusiastic than projected, and the dedicated staff has worked hard this year to put out a quality publication. Despite some financial difficulties at the beginning of the year, the newspaper has been a great success, and next year promises to be even better. Special thanks to our faculty advisors, who have given their time and talents generously.

Key Club

First Row (left to right): M. Barry, M. Rago, D. Prevett (Pres.), D. Rago (V. Pres.), C. McLellan, D. Barry, E. Allman, J. Rosenkaimer, J. McCusker, C. Maguire, K. Martin Second Row: R. Follett, L. Friedl, J. Gearty, S. Murphy, M. Eldridge, C. Hallow, K. Gattozzi, J. Spinale, E. Grube, P. White

The Key Club, although only two years old, has been very busy this year working for the American Heart Association and volunteering to help at the Ellis Nursing Home. Under the supervision of Dr. Pendell, the Key Club has run smoothly. Thanks, everyone, for your support.

Spaghetti Dinner

The annual yearbook spaghetti dinner, despite power failures, snow storms, and stale meatballs, proved to be a great success this year. The culinary talents of Chefs Flahive and Flaherty added greatly to the festivities, and Miss Dillon, Mr. Ducheneau, and many seniors all contributed their time and energy.

Flea Market

On the windy morning of October 2, the senior class started their flea market. The seniors, working from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., made $479 by selling the many donations given to them by students and faculty.

Senior Class Breakfast

On October 1, 1982, the senior class headed to the V.F.W. Post in Dedham for the first senior event of the year, the Senior Class Breakfast. After a meal of coffee, eggs, ham, and donuts, thank-you gifts were presented to the Powder Puff coaches and organizers. Everyone then headed over to the football field for the Powder Puff game.

Powderpuff

The senior class began a new tradition this year with the Powder Puff game. Because the girls were unable to find an opponent from another school, they challenged the senior boys. In spite of the handicap of tying their legs six inches apart, the boys managed to pull off a 15-0 victory.

The girls' team was led this year by tri-captains Trese LaCamera, Mary McInnes, and Erin Sugrue. They were coached by Roger and Barbara Cummings, Sean Fitzpatrick, John McNamara, and Joe Gallagher. The boys were coached by Mr. Hart. Both teams would like to thank these people, as well as the senior advisors, for organizing the game and helping to make it a success.

The girls would also like to extend very special thanks to the lovely senior boy cheerleaders, who kept the large crowd very entertained. Everyone had a great time.

Boy-Girl Hockey Game

I've never been on skates before . . . Fallon's Heroes . . . Ricky and Charles in red long underwear . . . Bumps and fights . . . Mr. "Flash" Flahive . . . Ricky's afterwards.

The Senior Girls rolled to an awesome victory over the Senior Boys with a score of 4-3. The Girls' strong offense handily defeated the Boys' feeble defense. The rules (what rules?) of the game were strictly enforced by referees Mr. Flahive and Bob Swartz. Thanks to all who gave their support, especially Mrs. Cummings and Rog (who is still hoarse).

Get Smart

The Senior Class Play this year was a thrilling stage-adapted episode of the television comedy "Get Smart". With its basic "good guy gets bad guy" plot, the show attracted large, enthusiastic audiences on both Friday and Saturday nights. After all, who could resist Lou Gierini's bumbling portrayal of Maxwell Smart, Julie McGinnis' interpretation of the adoring Agent 99, Rick D'Angelo's evil laugh as Mr. Big (the fiendish head of KAOS), the three crazy Wong Sisters, the four screaming blondes, the mad scramble for the Inthermo, and Keith Cariani's adorable portrayal of a dumb hitman? The entire cast would like to thank Miss Stephanie Shute for the time, energy, and love she invested in this production.

Senior Banquet

On April 29, the Westwood High School Cafeteria was the scene of the Senior Class Banquet, the theme being "Sail On." The Superlatives, given out by Donna Prevett and Jennifer Collins, provided some entertainment along with Louis Guerini's, Jerry Keller's, and Rob Ferzoco's teacher imitations. The Dance Band did a wonderful job providing music for the memorable night.

Nights In White Satin

Queen Hope Mansur

On May 20, the Junior-Senior Prom was held at the King Phillip Ballroom in Wrentham. Despite a few minor traffic accidents on the way, the evening was a "smashing" success. Couples danced the night away to the music of the Marcells, even though the band never did play the theme "Nights in White Satin." Hope Mansur was chosen queen of the prom, and her court consisted of Denise Barry, Lisa Robinson, Lisa Pratt, Marlene Borden, Jennifer Smith, Laura Boucher, Carla MacIntyre, and Susan Thiel. It was definitely a night to remember (especially Mr. Val's attempt to sing disco!)

Fun In The Sun

On June 1, after a long and hot graduation practice, everyone piled into waiting busses and headed for Crane's beach. The predicted bad weather never materialized, and we were able to enjoy a day of beautiful sunshine (and horrible sunburns!)

The day consisted of volleyball, football, frisbee, and soccer games. Just about everybody went swimming (Thanks to Fallon's Heroes), and Rick, Sean, Lou, and Roachie occupied themselves by building a huge sand dragon. Eating was perhaps the highlight of the afternoon, as everyone munched on chicken, steamers, corn, clam chowder, hamburgers, and hotdogs. (Another highlight was seeing Mr. Hart get thrown in!)

We left for Westwood at 4:00, tired, happy, and sunburned. It was certainly a memorable day.

Class Day

On June 3, we assembled in the gym as a class for the last time in Westwood High School for Class Day. The ceremony began with a welcoming address by class vice-president Trese LaCamera, and proceeded to the presentation of awards by Mr. Flaherty, Mr. Flahive, Mr. Gearon, and the various department heads. President Paul Toland presented the Class Gift (new trophy cases and picnic tables) and Liz Grube read the Class Poem. One of the highlights of the morning was the reading of the Class History, presented by Anne Lynch, Marianne MacDonald, Maureen Magri, and Julie McGuinness. Valerie DuBois, our AFS student, bid her classmates farewell. Finally, the 1983 Green Years was dedicated by editors Jennifer Collins and Donna Prevett to Mr. Peter Case for his kindness, wisdom, and understanding displayed throughout our four years at WHS.

After the conclusion of the ceremony, seniors, faculty, and parents headed to the cafeteria for the start of a new tradition: the Class Day Luncheon. It was with a mixture of sadness and joy that we ate our stuffed shells-our years at Westwood were finally drawing to a close.

We know that it is impossible to thank everyone who has helped us with the 1983 Green Years, but there are some people whose contributions are so outstanding they must be mentioned. Charles Foehl, Jennifer Spinale, Debbie Ganem, Anne Lynch, Ricky D'Angelo, and Beth Allman all donated invaluable time and energy. Our Senior class officers (Paul, Trese, Mary, and Joe) cheerfully helped us out whenever necessary. Mr. Ducheneau, Mr. Flaherty, Mr. Flahive, and Miss Dillon were always available to help us solve the many problems that arose throughout the year. Finally, without the incredible help of our yearbook advisor Maureen Shanahan, the yearbook never could have been done at all.
